Leo is Leo: PSG coach

Paris: Lionel Messi will start Paris St Germain's Ligue 1 home game against AC Ajaccio on Saturday after returning to training following a club-imposed suspension, coach Christophe Galtier said on Friday.

"I spoke with him on Tuesday to see what his mindset was and I found him very determined to play... He will start tomorrow (Saturday)," Galtier told a press conference.

Messi was back in training on Monday after being suspending for making an unauthorised trip to Saudi Arabia and missing a training session as a result.

The player's focus is on winning the French title Galtier said. "He's very eager to win that title," the coach said.

"With him in the team we'll have to adjust compared to what we did against Troyes. Leo is Leo. I'm not going to go into statistics but when he's with us we have to strike a different balance."

SIT to probe allegations against WFI chief

IMRAN AHMED SIDDIQUI

New Delhi: The Delhi police on Friday told a lower court that a special investigation team (SIT) has been constituted to conduct inquiry into the sexual harassment case against BJP MP and Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) chief Brijbhushan Sharan Singh.

The submission was made before additional chief metropolitan magistrate Harjeet Singh Jaspal in response to the court's earlier order directing the police to file a status report.

The police also filed a status report in a sealed cover and requested the court that the report must not be shared with anyone considering the nature of the case. The court posted the matter for the next hearing on May 27.

Last month the Delhi police registered two FIRs against Singh following prodding by the Supreme Court after seven wrestlers, including a minor, filed multiple complaints against him.

The Delhi police have also recorded the statement of Singh. "He was questioned for nearly three hours earlier this week," a police official said.

A former Delhi police commissioner expressed shock over the police's 'casual' approach in probing such a sensitive case.

"Why are the police treating Singh with kid gloves? First they were reluctant to register an FIR against him despite several complaints and now they have not arrested him even though they registered FIR against him after being prodded by the apex court. They are making a mockery of the entire investigation process," the former commissioner told

The Telegraph.

Varane boosts United

Manchester: Manchester United were handed an injury boost with centre back Raphael Varane back in contention when they host Wolverhampton Wanderers on Saturday but top scorer Marcus Rashford is a major doubt, manager Erik ten Hag said on Friday.

Varane has not played for a month since he was substituted in their Europa League draw with Sevilla and his return comes at the right time with United looking to consolidate a top-four spot with four games left.

However, Rashford, who has scored 29 goals in all competitions this season, may not be available for the game at Old Trafford.

"Varane is back and Rashford is doubtful," Ten Hag told reporters. "He has a problem, so (it is an) injury on his leg. He's a big question mark for tomorrow (Saturday) but happy Varane is back."

"We have players who can score goals and they have the opportunity now to show it. Varane is experienced, knows how to win and will lead how to win, will guide us.

"Alejandro Garnacho has one more week training, definitely, so he is available. We have seen he can bring something extra to the team."

Ten Hag's side have 63 points from 34 games to sit two points below Newcastle United as the top-four race heats up. Newcastle play at Leeds United on Saturday.

Meanwhile, a resurgent Liverpool have won six straight games to sit one point behind United in fifth having played a game more.

But Ten Hag was confident his players would come through, saying they were not showing any signs of nerves despite back-to-back defeats.

"We know that (Liverpool's run) but it's not important because we have everything in our hands," the Dutch manager said.

"What is important is the opponent we face tomorrow: Wolves."

Chelsea's season may be over with nothing left to fight for but manager Frank Lampard said on Friday that he is wary of Nottingham Forest who are still involved in a relegation battle.

Forest are 16th with 33 points, three points above the relegation zone.

Chelsea ended a nine-match winless run in all competitions when they beat Bournemouth last weekend but Lampard said that was just a "small step forward" for the London club.

Rome: AS Roma grabbed a 1-0 home victory over Bayer Leverkusen in their Europa League semi-final first leg on Thursday, thanks to 20-year-old Edoardo Bove's second-half goal.

Roma youth product Bove stabbed in the winner on the rebound in the 63rd minute for his first European goal.

Roma, bidding to win back-to-back European titles under coach Jose Mourinho following last season's Europa Conference League triumph, travel to Leverkusen next week for the return leg.

The winners will face Juventus or Sevilla, who drew 1-1 in their first leg, in the final.

Federico Gatti scored with a header seven minutes into added time to earn Juventus the home draw. Sevilla ignored the pressure of the Italian crowd at a packed Allianz Stadium and Youssef En-Nesyri gave them the lead in the 26th minute.
